

Society

The spring season, such as it is, for there is in reality a very short season following Easter, is on. A large number of weddings, both in the city and out, have occupied the attention of society people. Fashionable assemblages have filled the churches and homes for the wedding ceremonies and receptions following, and there are numerous visitors in Richmond, who also must be entertained.

The weather is entirely too lovely for one to remain indoors, and those who have cars and those who have friends that have cars are making all manner of pleasant excursions to the country. All of the men in town will assuredly be fishing in a few days. Sometimes whole parties go on these trips, and last year the society women in Washington actually organized a fishing club and made really a very interesting affair.

Besides the smart weddings last week and the funeral given by the Bachelors' Cotillion Club on Tuesday evening, there were egg hunts without number. Every society in every organization had one, and all their friends and neighbors went and found eggs or not, merely according to one's power of perspicacity, of course. It is safe to say that the egg hunts outnumbered the most fashionable entertaining done Easter week.

For the coming days there are several big weddings on the social calendar. The marriage of Miss Roberta Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, to Lester Eames Grant, of Colorado, will be celebrated in St. Paul's Church, Petersburg, on Tuesday at noon. It will be an affair of the greatest interest to Virginia society, and a large number of Richmond people will go to Petersburg for the wedding. Miss Hamilton made her formal bow to society two seasons ago and is one of the loveliest girls in society of the State. Mr. Grant and his bride will go to South America for the next two years.

Another prominent wedding of interest here is that of Miss Mildred Clarkson Foster, daughter of Mrs. John Hutton Foster, and Jacob Edge, of Philadelphia, which will be celebrated in St. Paul's Church in Alexandria on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Foster has visited relatives in Richmond several times and is widely related throughout the State. Her wedding will be a brilliant society event, and several Richmond girls have been invited to act as her bridesmaids.

Mrs. John Sinclair Muncie is giving a tea at the Country Club on Thursday afternoon, April 18, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Hoge Engaged. Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Hoge announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Steger, to Andrew Jamieson, of Danville. The wedding will be celebrated some time in the month of June. Miss Hoge made her debut in Richmond several seasons ago, and is one of the most prominent girls in Virginia society. She is a granddaughter of Dr. Harrison, of Louisville, Ky., and belongs to one of the most distinguished families in the State. Mr. Jamieson is equally well known in society of Southern Virginia, and the wedding in June will be a very important event.

Approaching Wedding. Mrs. Mary A. Vonderlehr announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Bertha Elizabeth, to Joseph Lawrence Miller. The wedding will take place on Wednesday morning, April 17, at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock.

Of Interest Here. A Baltimore exchange contains the following which is of interest to Richmond society: "A beautiful wedding which took place Thursday morning in Philadelphia, was that of Miss Reba Samuel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Samuel, to Francis W. Robinson, of Philadelphia, formerly of Baltimore, son of the late Edward Ayrault Robinson and Mrs. Robertson, of this city. The ceremony was performed at 12:30 o'clock by Rev. Alexander McColl in the Second Presbyterian Church in the presence of a large and fashionable assemblage of society from Baltimore and Philadelphia, and was followed by a breakfast at the residence of the bride's parents, southeast corner Twenty-second and Locust Streets.

"The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away, and she was met at the chancel by the bridegroom, attended by his brother, Edward Ayrault Robinson, of Baltimore, as best man. She wore a handsome empire gown of silver brocade, combined with rose pink lace, and made with a court train. Her duchess lace veil was arranged to form a cap and was fastened with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Elizabeth S. Samuel, of Philadelphia, was her sister's maid of honor, and was gowned in white chiffon, bordered with tiny pink roses and made with a Louis XIV. coat of pale blue brocade, also trimmed with pink roses. With this was worn a large black tulle hat, trimmed with pink roses and she carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons and white lilies.

"The bridesmaids were Mrs. Henry C. Mayer, Jr., Miss Agnes M. Spencer, Miss Margaret H. Spencer, Miss Frances Livingston Sullivan and Miss Frances Clark, all of Philadelphia, and Miss Alice Robinson, of Baltimore, a sister of the groom.

"Their gowns were pale pink chiffon draped over pale blue chiffon, trimmed in shadow lace and embroidered in tiny roses. They wore white picture hats, covered with blue chiffon and trimmed in pink tulle, and carried bouquets of bride roses and forget-me-nots.

"The ushers were Messrs. John E. Semmes, Jr., Alexander M. Rutherford, Jr., James Wood Tyson III, and Leigh Matthews, all of Baltimore; Snowden Samuel, of Philadelphia, a brother of the bride, and Dr. G. Canby Robinson, of New York, a brother of the groom."

Golden Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler, of 616 West Franklin Street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Friday afternoon, April 19, being at home informally to friends who may call from 5 to 7 o'clock.

At the Woman's Club. John Hart, a deep student of languages and a lover of books, will speak to the members of the Woman's Club to-morrow afternoon on "Some Aspects of the Mother Tongue." He will be introduced by former Governor A. J. Monaghan. Mrs. John Hart will be chairman of the day.

On Wednesday afternoon, Miss Augusta T. Daniel will discuss Victor Hugo and Les Misérables with the Literature Class.

The April card tournament will be played at the Woman's Club next Thursday evening at a quarter past 8 o'clock, with bridge whist as the game. The usual rules concerning gentlemen partners and the registering of tables will be observed.

Prominent Engagement. Mr. and Mrs. Graham, of Tazewell, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean McDonald, to Clint Manning Kilby, Ph. D., of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg. The marriage to take place in June. This announcement is of especial interest in Richmond, where both Judge Graham and his daughter have a great many friends.

Tarantella Dance. The names of the clappers and Italian peasant dancers have already been mentioned, but it may not be uninteresting to explain the nature of the dance itself. The tarantella is a most picturesque and dramatic dance and is the delight of the Italian peasant, who once believed it to be the cure of tarantism—an affection caused by the bite of the tarantula. It is full of wonderful charm and grace, beautiful waltzes and folk dances. The rhythmic movements of the dancers are so rapid and animated a step gives unmistakable interpretation of the meaning of the name.

Tarantella dance temperance. Mrs. Augustine Royall—Misses Warfield Cronshaw, Meta Randolph, Ellen Smith, Marguerite Quirkles, De Graffenried, Robert, Annie Robertson, Eliza Ingram, Alice Ingram, Mary Vaden, Sadie Zubly, Margaret Friede, Miss Horney, Messrs. Robert Purpitt, William Sydney, Francis French, Clayton Yerby, George Tompkins, Madison Mason, Mr. Jacobs, Lillipace Ingram, Mr. Kershaw, Mr. Dunford, William Norfleet, Raymond Musile.

Mrs. Preston Noland is arranging a series of chansons fantastiques, which will be rendered by Miss Montgomery and D. D. Phillips.

Norfolk Wedding. One of the most interesting weddings of the past week in Norfolk and Virginia society, as well as in the army and navy circles, occurred Wednesday evening at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Larnach, of the Marine Barracks. Their daughter, Miss Louise Edwards Cook, became the bride of Dr. Robert Eustis Hoyt, U. S. N.

The house was decorated for the occasion with pink apple blossoms and ferns. The ceremony was performed

A Manufacturer's Overstock of Tailored and Norfolk Suits Offers Us This Opportunity of Presenting $20 Values To-Morrow at $12.75

A manufacturer, being heavily overstocked, offered us a lot of Suits at a great price concession. We accepted his offer, and to-morrow you may select attractive Suits at a saving of $8.00 to $10.00 on each garment.

Not a common-place style in the gathering. Every one a recognized favorite, and have that inherent modishness so characteristic of Kaufmann garments.

Fabrics of the stylish black and white checks, English mixtures and hard wearing serge, many of the styles being shown in the popular Norfolk effect, with belts, so desirable for the young miss; others strictly tailored. Stunning Suits for every taste.

Women's and Misses' Motor and Street Coats That are Regular $22.50 Values, To-Morrow, $15.00.

Every one has need of a Coat, and these will find particular favor for their smart, attractive styles and unusual low prices; in a variety of designs and materials.

Coats for blustery April days, cool evenings, motor wear and for going-away.

Fabrics of English tweeds, checks and other stylish materials; many in the Raglan sleeve, buttoned high to neck or long revers, being shown in the loose-fitting effect now so popular.

Afternoon and Dainty Dancing Frocks in Which Variety, Exclusiveness and Extremely Low Prices are the Cardinal Features, Priced at $27.50.

Not often do we announce such a glowing offer as this. It's true the quantity is limited—but so is the price—the second being the consequence of the first. Frocks that are of exquisite beauty and charm, of silk and chiffon, many being shown with the peplum effect, others with the Pierrot collar; also, many artistically draped with lace. A gathering of Dresses sure to please.

Kaufmann's for Millinery

Our buyer, returning from the market, bought a collection of Hats of undeniable charm and beauty, which will be shown in our Millinery Salon, second floor, to-morrow. Smart dressers who wish to be informed of the latest modes in Hats owe it to themselves to view this exhibit.

25 Trimmed Hats Worth $15 to $18, To-Morrow, $10.00

Daily new conceits find their way here. Copies of the newest and smartest French Hats, and Hats that are solely the product of our own designers. Every Hat is in the prevailing millinery styles, in the Tricorne, Derby and Mushroom shape, in the popular braids of Togal, Hemp and Milan, daintily trimmed with a ribbon, flower and quills. Not a Hat worth less than $15.00 and $18.00; to-morrow $10.00

New Tam-o-Shanter Shapes

This shape is the latest style, and is very popular and becoming, to misses; made of the new sunrise and hemp braids; all colors.

$2.48 Mannish Shapes, $1.48

Ten popular shapes to choose from; every one correct and stylish; in sunrise braid; colors, King's blue, Cerise, Linen, Grey and White. Swiss Hemp Hats, small and medium shapes, all colors; special, $2.98 and $3.98.

Kaufmann & Co

Novelties and a Riot of Colors are Characteristic of the New Parasols

A variety that embraces all the oddities and fancies of Parasol fashioning. The new striped effects. Borders of highly contrasting colors, and other various ideas are utilized; all different from those shown in previous seasons.

AT $1.98 Flowered and Plain Taffeta Silk Parasols, long mission handles; many being shown in striped designs; all colors.

AT $2.98 Black and White Satin Taffeta and Silk Parasols, with solid color border, in all shades; long Princess handles, in carved and plain design.

Others being shown in a variety of designs to match all costumes at $3.50, $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00

Also, a large variety of Children's Parasols.

Plauen Lace Coat Sets

This offering will surely not want for appreciation on the score of attractiveness, for the selection is full of surprises. Beyond that, prices were never so low for such pretty and original Plauen Lace Sets, now in such demand and so indispensable with a coat suit.

AT 38c Embroidered Collar and Cuff Sets, scalloped edge, pointed effect. Another design of Swiss and Cluny insertion and edge; square sailor effect.

AT 50c Plauen Collar and Cuff Sets, round collar, with heavy designs; cuffs to match.

AT $1.00 Coat and Cuff Sets of fine quality plauen lace, in the popular pointed effect.

AT $1.50 Plauen Coat Sets, in square effect, with heavy designs, with wide cuffs to match.

Dainty Lingerie Waists

The Waists in this offering came to us a day or two ago from one of the foremost makers, and are in the prettiest styles and designs imaginable, at prices that make it even more attractive.

Lingerie Waists, square neck, 3/4 sleeve, of fine sheer lawn, trimmed in 1-inch Cluny, front hand embroidered $1.50

Attractive Waist of fine batiste, pin tucked, with strip of Irish crochet down front, high and low neck $1.98

Lingerie Waist of sheer batiste, tucked back and front, hand embroidered, fancy sleeve $2.98

Knit Underwear for Spring

Knit Underwear, in large variety, of the better sort, for mother, sister and the little tot, have been gathered here with an eye to comfort and economy, in silk, lace and cotton.

Ladies' Knit Union Suits, beading in neck and armholes, lace trimmed, full cut, 25c and $1.00

Richelieu Glove-Fitting Knit Union Suits of fine ribbed, ribbon at neck and armholes, lace trimmed or tight knee, no seam under corset, $1.00 and $1.50

Ladies' Sta (up) Vests, fine ribbed, jape neck and armholes, full cut, 10c apiece, or three for 25c

American Lady Corsets for Spring...

Have been built with especial attention to the graceful, undistorted lines of this season's fashionable gowns. Our expert fitters are prepared to help you select the model particularly adapted to your figure.

American Lady Corset, for medium and slender figure, low and medium bust, long skirts, 4 hose supporters; special $1.00

American Lady Corset, for medium, stout figure, low bust, extra long hip and back, strong supporters; special $1.50

American Lady Corset, of batiste or coutil, for average figures, low bust and long skirt, 6 hose supporters $2.00

American Lady Corsets, for decolette, low bust, with rubber gore, long hip and back $2.50

Also, the American Girl Corset, specially adapted for the young miss; special $1.00

Kaufmann & Co

WRINKLES GO QUICK PRINCESS TOKIO DELIGHTS AMERICANS LOOK YOUNG AGAIN

Get This Free Book—Commence to Remove Your Wrinkles at Once.

Beauty Doctors and the Medical Profession Stand Against Amusement, Marveling at this Wondrous New Method of Removing Wrinkles, Which Has for Ages Baffled the Leading Experts of the Earth.

No Cream, No Plasters, No Massage, No Rubbing, No Medicine, Nothing to Hurt Your Skin—Absolutely New Treatment—Never Before Offered by Others in America.

PRINCESS TOKIO NEW WRINKLE TREATMENT MAKES OLD FACES YOUNG

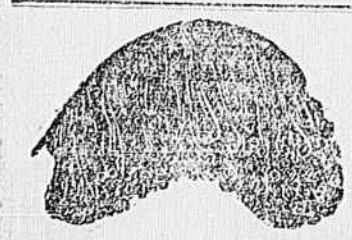

Did you ever see a Japanese woman with wrinkles, irrespective of age? Then learn how they achieve and maintain a smooth face, free from wrinkles. For the first time in America, the Princess Tokio treatment is being made known, and it is a revelation. Never before have Christian women been able to solve the secrets of these Oriental beauties, whose faces and forms have been the marvel through ages. But at last the treasure-trove has been unlocked, and there is set before every American lady, who writes immediately, the full knowledge about this wondrous new method.

The Princess Tokio Booklet of Beauty is a message full of sisterly feeling and sympathy for the American ladies. It tells, without hesitation, all about the Princess Tokio new treatment for removing wrinkles without harmful creams, pastes, lotions, or poisons, or mechanical appliances.

If you are a nation, would you like to look like a girl again? If you are fifty years of age, would you wish to look like a splendid young woman of twenty-five? If you are forty, would you like to look like a girl just out of her teens? Then to you this booklet will be of great value.

No money will be accepted for the Princess Tokio Booklet about wrinkles. It will be given to you FREE, sealed privately, by one who believes that there has dawned the most splendid day for American women of all ages up to seventy. It is a message of the most heartiest good cheer, and in unalloyed content. All you need do is pay for a THREE cent copy, addressing Princess Tokio, Suite 100, Central Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, U. S. A.

It tells how to remove wrinkles by entirely new treatment in only eight days.

Special Offer on High-Grade Willow Plumes for One Week Only

$30.00 Willow Plumes, reduced to $18.00
$25.00 Willow Plumes reduced to $14.00
$20.00 Willow Plumes reduced to $12.00
$16.00 Willow Plumes reduced to $9.50
$12.00 Willow Plumes reduced to $8.50

Old Feathers dyed, cleaned, curled and renovated equal to new.

New York Feather Hospital, 215 North First Street, Richmond, Va.

by Rev. Father Donohue, of St. Paul's Catholic Church, Portsmouth, under a bower of flowers and pink tulle, held back by silver wreaths tied with shaded pink ribbon.

The bride entered the drawing-room with her father, Colonel Karmay, by whom she was given away. She wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with a crown of white lace, which was her mother's. The court train was embroidered with chiffon and silver roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Vivian Gurney, of San Francisco, and Miss Helen Rogers, of New York. They wore frocks of pink satin and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Dr. Brown, of the Naval Hospital, acted as best man, and the ushers were Lieutenant White and Lieutenant Sidney S. Lee, U. S. N. C.

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink carnations. Little Audrey Creery was ring bearer, and wore a white mull frock over pink ware resumed, following the enforced quiet of the Lenten period. Miss Marie Leakey, well known in Richmond, gave an interesting lecture on some of the characteristics of art as shown in poetry and prose. Miss Leakey was especially happy in her rendition.

(Continued on Third Page.)

You can buy a dozen cans of GOOD LUCK

The Patented Tin Foil Cans in which Good Luck Baking Powder is packed prevent deterioration. "Good Luck" could not be sold regularly in solid carload lots if it did not fully retain its High Leavening Power.

At your grocer's.

The Southern Manufacturing Company, Richmond, Va.

GOOD LUCK

Her veil was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Katherine Quinby acted as maid of honor. She wore a gown of white lace over pink tulle and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Vivian Gurney, of San Francisco, and Miss Helen Rogers, of New York. They wore frocks of pink satin and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Dr. Brown, of the Naval Hospital, acted as best man, and the ushers were Lieutenant White and Lieutenant Sidney S. Lee, U. S. N. C.

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink carnations. Little Audrey Creery was ring bearer, and wore a white mull frock over pink ware resumed, following the enforced quiet of the Lenten period. Miss Marie Leakey, well known in Richmond, gave an interesting lecture on some of the characteristics of art as shown in poetry and prose. Miss Leakey was especially happy in her rendition.

(Continued on Third Page.)

Nothing you could do for your children will bear richer fruit than a musical education.

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink carnations. Little Audrey Creery was ring bearer, and wore a white mull frock over pink ware resumed, following the enforced quiet of the Lenten period. Miss Marie Leakey, well known in Richmond, gave an interesting lecture on some of the characteristics of art as shown in poetry and prose. Miss Leakey was especially happy in her rendition.

(Continued on Third Page.)

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

(Continued on Third Page.)

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink carnations. Little Audrey Creery was ring bearer, and wore a white mull frock over pink ware resumed, following the enforced quiet of the Lenten period. Miss Marie Leakey, well known in Richmond, gave an interesting lecture on some of the characteristics of art as shown in poetry and prose. Miss Leakey was especially happy in her rendition.

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink carnations. Little Audrey Creery was ring bearer, and wore a white mull frock over pink ware resumed, following the enforced quiet of the Lenten period. Miss Marie Leakey, well known in Richmond, gave an interesting lecture on some of the characteristics of art as shown in poetry and prose. Miss Leakey was especially happy in her rendition.

(Continued on Third Page.)

The wedding was a strictly military affair. The groom, the best man, ushers and the bride's father all wore their full dress uniforms.

(Continued on Third Page.)

Owing to the illness of Dr. Hoyt's father the wedding was very quiet. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Doyle, Captain and Mrs. Quinby, Captain and Mrs. Patten, the officers of the United States Receiving Ship Franklin and the Marine Barracks, Misses Gertrude Euterline.

Misses Anna and Katherine Gervin entertained very charmingly at their home on Easter Sunday evening. Those present were Misses Grace Bennett, Mabel Davis, Helen Davis, Bernadette Schutte, Helena Wigger, Blanche Clary, of Petersburg; Mary Boehling, Fey Cole, Esther Koro, Leonora Winters, Mary Steiss, Elizabeth Bolling, Lenette Dunnoy, Reed Clary, Clinton Palsen, Andrew Spain, Howard Stewart, of Petersburg; Richard Schutte, Alphonse Southard, Michael Korb, Joseph P. Myers, P. Price, George Wray, Fred Peh, Roy Dudley, Eugene Winters, Garthwright and Moseley Korb.

Quiet Wedding. A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waldrop, when their daughter, Mary Lee, was married to William B. Bates, of Lynchburg, the Rev. George Kemper, of the Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating. Easter lilies, ferns and palms decorated the parlors of the bride's home for the ceremony.

The bride entered the room with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lee Cottrell, wore white chiffon over white tulle and carried pink